Introduction

The regular monthly meeting for the membership of the Allegheny City Central Association was held on Monday, February 13, 2017 at 7:00 p.m. in the meeting room at Fabled Table. The meeting was presided by Andrew Wickesberg and recorded by Nick Ross.

Announcements/General Discussion

January meeting minutes approved with unanimous vote.

Jeff Martin from the Office of Councilwoman Harris did not have any updates and requested feedback on any issues from the audience.

Jamie Younger from the Office of Rep. Jake Wheatley announced the office will be helping perform rent rebates at a number of locations. Rep. Wheatley is inviting anyone interested to a March 20th MWBE small business networking event at the state capitol.

Molly Onufer from Office of Community Affairs announced applications are live for the Civic Leadership Academy and requested volunteers for the Snow Angels program.

Erin Tobin from Pittsburgh Parks Conservancy announced funding efforts for the Allegheny Commons pedestrian bridge. The West Ohio Street bridge is scheduled to go to construction in Spring 2018. Allegheny Commons Master Plan update is underway. Erin also announced a "Park on Tap" fundraiser on Friday March 10th.

Tom Hardy announced applications for the residential energy audit program are now live on the ACCA website and introduced representatives from CCI who introduced the program and gave examples of their work around the city.

Andrew Wickesberg announced up to five spots on the Board are open, with elections to be held in May. Anyone with questions can send them to elections@accapgh.org.

Nichelle Parker motioned to adjourn.

ALL TOGETHER. DIFFERENT.
