Announcements/General Discussion

Greg Mucha motions to approve May meeting minutes; seconded by Steve Adams. Motion passes.

Jeff Martin from the Office of Councilwoman Harris let residents know the Councilwoman has received parking complaints from residents on Redour Street and is working on a solution. There will also be a Capital Budget request for aerators and additional upgrades to Lake Elizabeth. ShotSpotter is currently being installed in Police Zone I.

Molly Onufer gave notices for several upcoming June meetings regarding 2019 Capital Budget, CDBG funds, and Public Safety. Details can be found in ACCA Weekend Updates.

Erin Tobin from Pittsburgh Parks Conservancy updated on Lake Elizabeth. DPW crews will be cleaning and testing lake for leaks this week. If leaks are found to be significant, funding for repairs will not be received until 2019 at the earliest. Residents are encouraged to write the city and council requesting repair money. Barb Talerico motioned to have ACCA write a letter to council demanding the lake be cleaned, repaired, and aeration system installed in 2018. Motion passes. Northeast Fountain construction is progressing as planned.

ACCA is looking for volunteers to help with National Night Out on August 7.

Ashlyne from OneNorthside announced that the former Sprout Fund grants have been moved to OneNorthside and residents are encouraged to submit applications for Micro Grants.

Mark Jones from AGH updated on cancer center construction.

Patrick Dexter presented discussion on the proposed Norfolk Southern project to double stack trains.

ALL TOGETHER. DIFFERENT.
