Announcements/General Discussion

Andrew Wickesberg motions to approve June meeting minutes; seconded by David Charlton. Motion passes.

Jeff Martin from the Office of Councilwoman Harris is scheduling a meeting on the railroad project with Norfolk Southern and city leadership. A future town hall community event is also being planned.

Molly Onufer from the Office of Community Affairs announced that the city will be setting up a direct email account for railroad bridge project information and comments. PennDOT has put the project on hold until further investigation is completed.

Erin Tobin from Pittsburgh Parks Conservancy had general updates.

Ann Gilligan from Mayfly Market, formerly AllegHENY City Market, on Arch Street presented on their upcoming opening. The business will continue to be a market and deli combination, including fresh produce and local products. Renovations will include a refresh of the exterior with new mural on the north side of the building. Tentative opening planned for early September.

Lucas Bagshaw, founder of Bags and Blocks, presented on his litter cleanup initiative. Lucas will also be restarting the Beautification Committee.

ALL TOGETHER. DIFFERENT.
